Waterfield Would Urge Retrospective Measures Provide Teachers Pay

Louisville, July 15.—Harry Lee Waterfield Monday issued a statement promising to urge retrospective legislation at the 1948 General Assembly to provide funds for payment of unaccrued salaries and welfare needs from July 1, 1947, if Gov. Simon Willis fails to call a special session of the Legislature to meet those needs.

At the same time, Waterfield implored Governor Willis to drop his manorial attitude toward members of the General Assembly and call a special session without attempting to bind the hands of the elected representatives of the people.

Waterfield also countered Governor Willis' "if-then" proposal for a special session with a plea for the Governor to include in his call a provision whereby the Legislature could pass a bill to exempt the service pay of veterans of World War I from the State income tax. He also asked that the Governor pave the way for the Legislature to refund the State income tax to veterans who have already made their tax payments.

Waterfield's promise of retrospective appropriations for school-teacher pay means this:

If the Governor rejects Waterfield's plea for a special session, the Speaker of the House proposes, to sponsor a law which will give the teachers their salary increases for the full year, instead of just the time left of the school term after additional revenue becomes available under a new appropriation law.

In that way, regardless of whether Willis continues his stubborn attitude and turns thumbs down on the cry for a special session, or from unconstitutional promises, Waterfield would see that the teachers get substantial salary increases through back-pay legislation.

Would Base State Aid Increase On Survey

Frankfort, July 11.—Before any definite commitments are made as to increasing the present $500,000 annual appropriation for aid to counties on rural county roads, we should know considerably more about the needs of the counties.

By J. Stephen Watkins, Commissioner of the Kentucky Department of Highways. A survey to be made by the Department of Highways, Chicago, a non-profit foundation, to determine just how many miles of rural county roads are in need of repair, would be able to invest in rural county roads without hampering the construction and maintenance of the state primary system.

"There are twelve hundred narrow or one-way bridges on our main system which must be given some attention and this alone will cost millions," Mr. Watkins said.

The Jeffersonian Subscription List Grew Rapidly From Beginning

Money poured in from well-wishers from city, county and state after the first issue of The Jeffersonian, Thursday, June 13, 1947, and letters of congratulation, frequently containing subscription money, came from other states (later from foreign lands).

Both advertising and subscriptions had increased by the time the second issue appeared, Thursday, June 20, and in this issue was printed many of the "Good things" that were being said by voice or in writing.

E. R. Sprowl, an enterprising backer, had three big ads in the paper, and Hofelich & Lausman had three, after exceptional results from their advertising in the first issue. E. R. Sprowl & Co. advertised real estate, auto-repairing and insurance. The H. & L. firm, "The First Grand Bargain Firm," set to open Saturday, June 21, 1947.

The H. & L. firm did enough business after the first ad appeared in The Jeffersonian, to pay for their quite liberal advertising contract for one year, they said. They accomplished this feat at "highest market prices."

The Courier-Journal, the Louisville Times and the Louisville Post all had ads in the paper. The C-J. was then publishing a weekly edition.

Pewee Valley Team Here Next Sunday

The strong Pewee Valley baseball team, leaders in the Amateur Baseball League, come to Jeffersontown Sunday to tangle with the locals who have a tight grip on second place. Pewee Valley defeated Jeffersontown twice this season on the Pewee Valley diamond. Both victories were one run margins. Jeffersontown will be weakened by the loss of Joe Reid, Jr., their stellar shortstop. Joe got his finger caught between two gears while at work, infection set in and it was necessary to lance the finger from both sides and insert a tube for drainage.

The Jeffersontown team was on its way to setting some kind of a record when the Ellison A. C. baseball team requested permission to leave the field after three innings of play with Jeffersontown leading 22 to 3, on the local diamond Sunday. Permission was granted due to the fact that their only pitcher who showed any ability was injured when struck on the pitching arm by a live drive from the bat of Ray Craft.

All of the Jeffersontown players used the bat to good advantage with the local team going four for four. Maurice Trautwein stole home to the delight of the spectators. Jack Patch did what hurtling was necessary for Jeffersontown. Fans are urged to come early to next week's game as seats will be scarce.

St. Matthews Potato Coming Into Its Own

Hazen Senter Pingree, American manufacturer, born in Denmark, Maine (the great Northern potato state), while Mayor of Detroit, made a national name for himself, in urging that more people plant potatoes. He caused public plots to be laid out for experiment, and in less than no time had nearly every backyard in the motor city raising potatoes.

Potato vines, he declared, were more valuable than the value of the morning glory or the moonvine, although he did not discourage the raising of flowers.

Workers who were beginning to pour into the big Michigan city at that time, many of them from the country, and who had been farmers, took to backyard truck-gardening, and saved much more valuable than the value of the morning glory or the moonvine, although he did not discourage the raising of flowers.

Apply Now, VA Tells Prospective Students

World War II veterans who expect to enter college for the first time this fall under educational provisions of the G.I. Bill should apply to the Veterans Administration as soon as possible.

VA Branch Office officials in Columbus, Ohio, today cited important steps to be followed by veterans who plan to enter school for the first time since their release from service:

1. The veteran should go to his nearest VA office, educational institution or one of the various service organizations and obtain VA Form 1580, which is the application for education and training under the G.I. Bill. VA and the other agencies will assist him in completing the form.

2. The application, together with a certified or photostatic copy of the veteran's discharge paper, should be sent to the VA regional office having jurisdiction over the territory in which the veteran is located. The Michigan and Kentucky, these offices are located in Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Louisville. If married, the veteran also should submit a copy of his certificate of marriage.

3. The veteran should present his application to the school or training establishment at the time of his enrollment. The institution will complete the certificate and return it to the appropriate VA regional office, which then may authorize payment of subsistence allowance to the veteran.

Civic League Endorses Reed For Commissioner

Discussing phases of the primary election, Attorney James T. Robertson, president of the Louisville Christian Civic League, said Thursday:

"The most important race in the State of Kentucky this year is that of William M. Reed, president of American Air Filter Company for County Commissioner." Reed is one of Louisville's leading industrialists. His company was listed recently by the Better Business Bureau among 200 throughout the entire country.

In announcing his candidacy, Reed said that he, being interested only in good government, would be willing to give his salary back to the County.

Robertson declared, however, that would be "setting a bad precedent." But, pointing out that Reed has a real fight against gambling, "because of the harm it has done his employees who frequent the gambling establishments near his plant," said the Civic League president.

"The reason that it is the most important campaign is that if we can win this year, good government will be put ten years ahead. The cause will not be defeated, however, if we lose."

DESIRE GOOD CANDIDATES NOMINATED

For the past two decades there has been heard grassroot demands for "business men in politics." At times there has been a clamor cry, in the interest of efficiency in government, for candidates who, instead of being politically minded, were interested and versed in the art of getting things done in a businesslike manner—in regarding public office a job in which a dollar's worth of service was due the taxpayer for his dollar.

But today there is a new element in local politics that is asking for more than mere business efficiency in the public office he offers himself for public office. This group in the man electorate (whose tribe fortunately, is increasing) is taking a stand on moral grounds today; is demanding that since efficiency cannot be applied alone to producing good government, but may, and has been in the past, strenuously devoted to tricks in the political trade which work in opposition to good government, candidates should be sought whose principles and record of conduct have been tested and found not wanting, and who have the ability and the stamina to stand up under pressure.

Many a politician has proven himself efficient, in fact has been cleverly adept—but in the wrong direction. In preserving their own political fortunes, and in building the fences of their political parties, many have demonstrated ability to the nth degree.

Politics being susceptible to graft, and under certain conditions, to untold evil influences that are opposed to good government, much depends on the human element in the governmental system.

These facts are being recognized and ways and means are being sought and adopted in Louisville and Jefferson County through the Louisville Christian Civic League, to meet the conditions. Although no very aggressive campaign has been started thus far, either for expanding the League membership or to mold public opinion, the movement is growing and the ideas and the ideals of the group are taking hold among those of the great body of Christian citizens of this local area.

The Louisville Christian Civic League, whose membership is made up of members of various Christian denominations of the community, is extending its influence and strength. Its president, Attorney James T. Robertson, and a committee of prominent civic leaders are collecting data and examining the records of men who are offering themselves as candidates in both the Democratic and Republican parties. The information secured is being passed on to the membership for digesting. Neither party is given preference in the search for the best to be found in both parties. No League member is given for whom to vote, regarding its party affiliation, but is given information, as obtained from various sources, that should enable him to pick the more suitable candidate.

Thus there is at least the beginning of an organized force seeking to approach political problems from a relatively new angle, in so far as organization is concerned. Obviously, with the organized forces of evil operating today to foil good government, and tie the hands of government officials, the good people of this area should appreciate the efforts of the League and give it support.

By David M. Porter

The best of "mother nature" and politics were both on in Kentucky last week.

Governor Willis issued a provision call for a special session last week. According to law only the things issued in the call for the special session can be acted on, but they may take as much time as they want and do what they will on those subjects. The Governor stated that there were certain evident needs that must be acted on and certain limitations that must be kept, that if the Legislature would agree to this, and inform him of their agreement within six days, he would call the session. Otherwise no call could be issued.

Here is what he would have issued the call for:

1—For the school program, including the per capita fund, equalization fund, and for the institutions of higher learning, $3,500,000, divided $300,000 for the university and colleges, and $3,200,000 for the "common school" fund.

2—$3,300,000 for public assistance, including old age assistance, aid to the needy blind and aid to dependent children.

3—$25,000 for the School for the Deaf, to be used as needed for the white and Negro schools.

4—$100,000 for the employment of investigators of the gambling commission in Kentucky.

If the program outlined be adopted, the immediate needs will be met and other meritorious claims can be postponed to the regular session next January. If the program have indicated needs with the approval of the members of the House and Senate and they will advise me within six days, I will call a special session with the understanding and agreement:

1—That the session will continue only long enough to enact the bills, not to exceed ten days.

2—That no other subjects will be brought up for discussion or consideration at the session, or requests made by either house for an enlargement of the call.

3—That the appropriations will not exceed the limits I have stated, and the program will be accepted in its entirety.

At a meeting of Democratic Legislators in Louisville, Sunday called by Harry Lee Waterfield, Speaker of the House, it was considered they would refuse to agree to the Governor's stipulations and informed him so by telegram. Governor Willis wired back that "Your caucus group evidently is not as greatly interested in helping the schoolteachers, the aged, the needy blind and dependent children as they profess to be when urging a special session of the Legislature."

"I had intentionally barred the way to a political session of the Legislature which would result in an injury to the State and unnecessary expense to the taxpayer."

"If your group is acting in good faith and for the best interests of Kentucky the terms I have outlined should have strong appeal to you. For you to say 'no' to this effort to help education, the aged, and the needy blind in the present emergency is a plain admission that your group is more concerned with politics than with the welfare of those in question."

The Legislators replied that they would be breaking their legislative oath by agreeing to such a session. The executive and legislative branches were separate and distinct and one could not dictate to the other or agree to submit to such action.

John Fred Williams opened his campaign for the Republican nomination for Governor at Hazard last Saturday. A large and attentive crowd gathered in front of the Court House to hear his speech. A special train carried many of his followers from Louisville, Frankfort and Lexington to the gathering and his speech was broadcast.

The Kentucky State Chamber of Commerce met in Frankfort last Thursday and passed resolutions advocating the reduction of the State tax on intangibles from 50 cents to 10 cents a hundred dollars, and the repeal of the State inheritance tax.

Earl R. Muir, president of the organization, and Governor Willis made speeches at the gathering. Such an organization has long been needed and deserves the cooperation of all the people.

Light on the Problem of Human Suffering

LESSON TEXT FOR JULY 20-26
1:30 P.M. to 2:30 P.M. June 2-11
MEMORY SELECTION—Thou there endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.—1 Timothy 2:3.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Lesson subject and text have been changed to meet the needs of the church.

By MANUEL L. LEVINSKY, D. D. Of The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

HUMAN suffering—what a problem it is to all of us, in greater or smaller measure. From the broken heart of men and women comes the question "WHY?"

We cannot always answer, nor do we fully know the meaning and purpose. We must often simply put ourselves and our loved ones into the hands of God, trusting him to bring into us assurance and victory.

There are some things we can know, and they are most helpful. The book of Job reveals much concerning the background of suffering and its uses and advantages. It is not all pain and grief. God does not forget his people in their hour of trial.

Job had suffered the loss of property, family, and was now personally afflicted by sickness of the body. His friends who came to comfort him had added to his troubles by their plain platitudes about suffering being the result of sin (cf. Job 3:1), and so on.

There was enough truth in what they said to make it hurt, and so we are doubly glad to learn a look behind the scenes. We learn that this was not a struggle between God and Job, nor even between Satan and Job. We see

I. The Battle Between God and Satan (Job 1:1).

READ the entire story here and you will see that Satan, when faced by Job's faith and the godly example of Job's life, threw down the gauntlet. He declared that the only reason Job loved God was because he received so much good out of it, because God protected him.

The issue was clearly drawn: the question was whether God was able to keep a man in the midst of trial and suffering. Was His grace sufficient for the dark hours of life as well as the happy and bright ones?

Having stripped Job of all his possessions, and left him childless and heart broken, Satan had to admit failure up to that point. But he sneeringly slandered both Job and God by saying that Job was not concerned about these other things so long as his own body was unharmed (2:4).

So the Lord permitted him to afflict Job's body, and we see the conflict raging in

II. The Mystery of God's permission will enter into the picture here, and we learn too that Satan, while a mighty being, has limits to his power. God may give him liberty to test his servant, but it is never with the thought that they will fail; rather to prove that they can stand true when what was more moral even more difficult than Job. We find him finally an outcast, sitting on an ash heap, scraping the awful sores upon his poor body.

Job did have his times of questioning and doubt (19:7-10). He felt at times that God had forsaken him. He misunderstood the providence of God. But through it all he held on to his faith in God. He could do without these other things so long as his own body was unharmed (2:4).

He saw beyond the grave, for he knew that if his body were destroyed he would still see his Redeemer.

What more sublime expression of faith could a man make than to say in his hour of seeming despair, "I know that my Redeemer liveth."

How did it all come out in the end? That is our last point.

III. The Outcome—Victory for God (Job 42:1-6; James 5:11).

God did come to the aid of Job himself. Judging himself to be unworthy (42:6), he repented of all his own self-righteousness and cast himself upon the mercy of God. God then vindicated him and restored him to a place of blessing and usefulness.

The tragic auto accident on our Preston highway here in which four lives were snuffed out has brought home to us the uncertainty of life and also causes thought to the cause for the several accidents that have occurred at or near this same curve. Some have told me it is due to an error in construction of the road there, but whatever it is, it should be investigated and corrected. A car was killed here a few years ago and several cars and at least one loaded truck overturned. Too much attention cannot be paid to our roads, especially the numerous curves.

Our neighbor, Mr. Duestche and nephew, Mr. B. B. Magruder are preparing to go to Africa on a big game hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Magruder are touring Canada and Northern U. S. on a vacation trip. Blackberries are very slow ripening this season. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Shelburne entertained relatives and friends to the number of 23 at dinner last Sunday, July 6. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gardner and children of city, Rev. J. E. Lawrence, city; Mrs. Cathy Ann Bardtown, and others from Mt. Washington, etc.

Mrs. W. J. Bell, city, was weekend guest of her niece, Mrs. Powell Ladusaw and family. She had been with her son, Harry Bell and family at Owensboro for a few days. Harry had the misfortune to break his ankle bone while on a visit, during his vacation, to Mayfield, Ky. and so he will use crutches for a season.

Regret to hear of the passing of Mrs. Susan Birdwell, a lovely character. We tender sympathy to her beloved children.

We are having a birthday this week. To be exact the 6th, but we decided we would take a week to celebrate. Sunday we had Mrs. Paul Holclaw, Misses Jane and Ruth Robert Holclaw, Mr. Robert Ball and three children, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks, Monday, Mrs. N. H. Miller, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Walter Crumback and son, Miss Emma Rogers and Daisy Ann Lawrence and Rev. J. E. Lawrence as guests.

Monday evening the Music Makers Band, composed of J. R. Miller, Theodore Young, Frank Frick, Mr. Dan Hukle and son, James and Mr. Duvall honored us and these others with a program of popular classic and religious music.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Church, Mrs. Mary Church, Mr. and Mrs. Holclaw and Misses Jane and Ruth Robert Holclaw, Mrs. Chester Owens, city, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quigg and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks, Mrs. Roger Wigginton, Daisy Ann and Sonny, Miss Emma Rogers, Robert Ball and four children, Billy, Margaret, Sue Anne and Joe, Mr. J. D. Garr. Sunday service served at 10:30 a.m.

Rev. J. E. Lawrence, pastor of Little Flock left Tuesday night for a two weeks vacation at his home in North Carolina. He conducted the funeral of the little Doris Ann Sapp, aged 8, one of the auto victims, who lived here on Zoneton Road with her mother, Mrs. Ben Boerste and attended Sunday School at Little Flock.

Mrs. Everett Blair of Shively came Monday to attend the birthday party of her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Holclaw.

Mrs. Roger Barger has been quite ill of summer flu.

Past the sugar, please!

Mrs. Chester Owen of Selman Co. is spending her vacation with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ball.

Send us your renewals or new subscriptions to the Jeffersonian. You can't afford to be without it.

The pastor, Reverend Doll, is to take his vacation the first two weeks in August after leaving Monday, August 4, for Winona Lake, Ind. Mrs. Doll will accompany him and possibly others of the family will go too.

The church is planning a homecoming to be held sometime in September, and the exact date will have been decided on this week at the W.M.S. meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Raggard, Jr. are the happy parents of a little 7-pound 7-ounce daughter that came to them Monday noon at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital.

(Too late for last week)

The tragic auto accident on our Preston highway here in which four lives were snuffed out has brought home to us the uncertainty of life and also causes thought to the cause for the several accidents that have occurred at or near this same curve. Some have told me it is due to an error in construction of the road there, but whatever it is, it should be investigated and corrected. A car was killed here a few years ago and several cars and at least one loaded truck overturned. Too much attention cannot be paid to our roads, especially the numerous curves.

Our neighbor, Mr. Duestche and nephew, Mr. B. B. Magruder are preparing to go to Africa on a big game hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Magruder are touring Canada and Northern U. S. on a vacation trip. Blackberries are very slow ripening this season. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Shelburne entertained relatives and friends to the number of 23 at dinner last Sunday, July 6. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gardner and children of city, Rev. J. E. Lawrence, city; Mrs. Cathy Ann Bardtown, and others from Mt. Washington, etc.

Mrs. W. J. Bell, city, was weekend guest of her niece, Mrs. Powell Ladusaw and family. She had been with her son, Harry Bell and family at Owensboro for a few days. Harry had the misfortune to break his ankle bone while on a visit, during his vacation, to Mayfield, Ky. and so he will use crutches for a season.

Regret to hear of the passing of Mrs. Susan Birdwell, a lovely character. We tender sympathy to her beloved children.

We are having a birthday this week. To be exact the 6th, but we decided we would take a week to celebrate. Sunday we had Mrs. Paul Holclaw, Misses Jane and Ruth Robert Holclaw, Mr. Robert Ball and three children, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks, Monday, Mrs. N. H. Miller, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Walter Crumback and son, Miss Emma Rogers and Daisy Ann Lawrence and Rev. J. E. Lawrence as guests.

Monday evening the Music Makers Band, composed of J. R. Miller, Theodore Young, Frank Frick, Mr. Dan Hukle and son, James and Mr. Duvall honored us and these others with a program of popular classic and religious music.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Church, Mrs. Mary Church, Mr. and Mrs. Holclaw and Misses Jane and Ruth Robert Holclaw, Mrs. Chester Owens, city, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quigg and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks, Mrs. Roger Wigginton, Daisy Ann and Sonny, Miss Emma Rogers, Robert Ball and four children, Billy, Margaret, Sue Anne and Joe, Mr. J. D. Garr. Sunday service served at 10:30 a.m.

Rev. J. E. Lawrence, pastor of Little Flock left Tuesday night for a two weeks vacation at his home in North Carolina. He conducted the funeral of the

War Veteran Clements Pledges Real Help For World War II Veterans

FORMER Buck Private Earle Clements has a first-hand knowledge of the war veteran's problems. In 1917, at the age of 20, he left the College of Agriculture at the University of Kentucky and enlisted in Company M, First Kentucky Infantry. He served 28 months, won the rank of captain and was honorably discharged.

Clements has no sympathy for those who shirked or avoided the service of their country, in whatever capacity it was needed, in any war.

Clements has no patience with the efforts of the present State Administration to extract from veterans state income tax, plus penalties, on their service pay. The last General Assembly passed a bill to exempt such pay from taxation, but it was vetoed.

In his own words, Clements' attitude is: "I imagine there are many who did not worry much about their income taxes while on the beachheads of Iwo Jima and Normandy. As Governor, I shall recommend and sign an act that will waive, rebate or give proper credit, for state income, taxes on service pay."

Clements promises to the many young Democrats "qualified for leadership due to experience gained in war service": "They will receive the same preference in State jobs that is now given them in U. S. Civil Service employment."

Reed Says Gambling Should Be Eliminated
Believing that he can be of service to city, county, state, and virtually for no other reason, W. M. Reed, president of the American Air Filter Company, Louisville, offering for County Commissioner on the Republican ticket, outlined his campaign platform to The Jeffersonian this week, as follows:
"Honest and efficient administration of the fiscal affairs of the county."
"Appointment of employees according to merit and not politics."
"Elimination of the present feud between county and city government."

"When the present county administration went into office the statement was made that big time gambling would be eliminated, but the same joints are operating now that operated under the Democratic Administration. According to The Times the other day a county official was quoted as stating that the gambling situation in the county was under control. The only difference between control now and control two years ago is that it is a Republican organization instead of Democratic."
"If nominated and elected I do not promise a cure-all for everything, but will to the best of my ability fulfill the duties of the office of County Commissioner."
There is one thing certain that will owe allegiance to no one except the citizens and taxpayers. "I am now and have been, since organization, president of the American Air Filter Company, Inc., which I can state is one of Louisville's outstanding manufacturing companies, employing at present 450 people, and doing business all over the United States and in many foreign countries. My business experience could, believe me, be of value to the Fiscal Court."

OUR DEMOCRACY—

MULTIPLYING THE PRINTED WORD

THE INVENTION OF THE ROTARY PRESS BY RICHARD HOE IN 1846 MADE IT POSSIBLE TO PRINT WITH SPEED AND EFFICIENCY.

TILGHMAN'S DEVELOPMENT IN 1866 OF A METHOD FOR MAKING PAPER FROM WOOD PULP, WAS AN INCREASED PRODUCTION.

WHEN MECHANICAL TYPESETTERS INVENTED THE LINOTYPE IN 1885, THE PROCESS OF SETTING TYPE WAS SPEEDED UP.

THE INVENTIVE GENIUS OF THESE THREE AMERICANS TREMENDOUSLY BROADENED THE SERVICE OF THE PRINTED WORD AND STIMULATED THE FREE EXCHANGE OF IDEAS, SO ESSENTIAL TO A DEMOCRACY.

Any youngsters of adults between the ages of 13 and 30, who are interested in singing, are invited to join the chorus in their practice sessions at the direction of their capable and very enthusiastic leader, Miss Clayton.

However, the old technique has not been forgotten as was manifested in the games, July 12, when the Buechel Junior Boys and Intermediate Girls suffered setbacks from Fern Creek Club by a score of 10 to 6.

The Buechel Independent League furnished two evenings of very good softball last week when the St. Matthews Club defeated the Buechel A.C.'s by a score of 9 to 3 and the Buechel A.C.'s defeated the Fern Creek Club by a score of 5 to 0 on Monday, July 7.

SMOKE RINGS

By—Charlie Vetterline

Not only do you hear about the great Buechel Recreation setup in Jefferson County, but you hear about it out in Kentucky now.

Buechel has just reason to be proud, because standing on handouts, these children to the boys and girls who will direct the affairs of the United States tomorrow.

The playground at Buechel will stand out forever as a reminder that men like Bill Rice and J. Frank Vogt weren't content to just want a fustpot for their children, they rolled up their sleeves and went to work and got it.

A community is only as great as its leaders, and when you drive by the Buechel play area tomorrow and see hundreds of kids enjoying wholesome recreation, you'll know that Bill Rice and Maurice Luker, a chap who says little but does much, are giving their all for Future America.

You bet Ole Smokie's blowing his rings at these men today, and when more, three of the four Smokie Ringers pipes this week go to Bill Rice, J. Frank Vogt and Maurice Luker for doing something for somebody else.

Now about that fourth pipe—it's all yours Ivy Ford, and no pipe winner has ever merited the famous award more than you.

When you work for J.Town you work for the future. It's cinch that your name goes in Smokie Ringers' "Hall of Fame."

When like Ivy don't come along every day is a lifetime. If the kids want him to umpire, he umpires; if there are some naffs, he umpires; if there are some naffs, he umpires; if there are some naffs, he umpires.

Anything at all he can do for the kids, he does it. In the final analysis, when we all take a look at the future, we'll find that the kids who were given the chance to be something, are the ones who made it.

By the way, Bill Kroeck and Maurice Luker are giving out with the information at the County-Wide Council meeting last night, that you were going to be in there pitching for Valley at the Jubilee at the Armory on August 22.

Smokie Ringers' glad to hear that Pal is a long-time friend of Smokie Ringers', and Bill is the sorta fellow everybody likes. Mrs. Kroeck says that her son, who is as big as a billboard.

That Recreation Council meeting was an interesting one, with men and women, representing every community in Jefferson County except one, who were laying plans for the Jubilee.

If you miss that big summer picnic of the County Recreation, you're always going to be sorry. Have you taken your youngsters to your local picnic area? You can enter them in the big Army show.

Buechel asked for 1,000 tickets. Lyndon and Shively; B. O. Hauss said Fairdale wants 500. Mac McGinnis of Camp Taylor wants another 500, so it went into Maurice Luker suggested we check to see if there were enough seats in the Armory to take care of everybody in Jefferson County who want to see the kids "turn on."

It's a great Jefferson County—take it from Smokie. Have you marked your calendar for August 22?

RECREATION With Colored Folk

Everything is Jubilee, Jubilee, Jubilee. Out at Harrods Creek, the Circus project and building the community in which you live will be the best. Laura Jackson cannot be given too much credit for the programme she is trying to put on with that ever faithful and loyal Lily Mae Brown at her side. Watch this community, they were won by Oscar Taylor, Winston Johnson, from Harrods Creek, Dick Prater, Henry Dunbar, Robert Shelby from Jefferson-town, Freddie Gathright and Howard Perkins from Newburg. I had some nice products to bring in.

From Berrytown, I am thankful to Betty Lee, Jeanie, Marie, Marie, Young, Mamie Ball, Lula Ball, Mrs. Couch, Mrs. Henrietta Graves and others for their cooperation.

At Jefferson-town, James R. Helm sure had a group waiting for me. Those people working mightily hard on coaters and finishing their beanie. You must see this tonette group in action including James R. Helm, very interesting. We appreciate Mr. and Mrs. Helm looking in on us.

At Newburg, Mrs. Elsie Jones had a nice group of products waiting for me. Some originality is seen in Mrs. Jones' work. The Circus she is turning out is something to crow about. What are you going to say when you see some of their folk games? These children have rhythm in their bones.

Anyhow you can't afford to miss this great Jubilee on August 22nd at the Armory. You will be served everything from soup to nuts (smiles). Take time out next week and visit with Yiv, won't you, and until then—so long.

High View Highlights

By Agnes Tryon

This week out Highview way finds the young blood preparing for the big Jubilee at the Armory, August 22.

One of their special entries will be a cardboard model village of Highview.

Earl Medor has just about mastered the construction of this project. So while at the '47 Frolics in order to take a good look at the village.

Our children will also do the tumbling and pyramiding acts. This has required using those muscles we didn't know we possessed. Some tricks, a lot of will power and practice and the rest is simple. Sounds easy, doesn't it?

Our group is doing some lovely work with our bodies. We hope they have several size models. They have several size models and are making puppets, pot holders, towels, book markers, dolls and quilt blocks. They finished articles will be on display at the Jubilee. We hope every member of the Highview Recreation Club will enter at least one article.

We have word Patty James and John Hudson will be contesting the weekly dip at Light-house Lake. Mr. John Jones gives swimming instructions to all who attend each Friday. Last Friday at our park Loris and Mildred Konermann, along with George Robb put down a pretty good race. The supervisors were well pleased with their speed.

Davies County Wants To Study Recreation

Elroy Cartwright of Harford, Ky., was in the offices of the Jefferson County Playgroup and Recreation Board this week seeking a copy of "A Guide To County Recreation" which is the book published by the board explaining the county recreation set-up in detail.

Cartwright said that the Fiscal Court of Davies County and the Board of Education of Davies County are planning to bring Charlie Vetterline, Director of Jefferson County recreation, to Owensboro in August to give the public officials a course in recreation. He said that it takes to establish a program similar to Jefferson County's.

FOLK ACTIVITY

In addition to the regular visits of the Folk Activity Specialists to each playground this week, the services rendered by three Jefferson County girls, Barbara Krieger, Julia Krieger and Doris Jean Wigington, was an added attraction for Lyndon, Middletown and Eastwood. All of these girls are talented in the various forms of dancing and when asked if they would help teach rhythmic games their reply was a very enthusiastic "Yes."

Monday afternoon the girls and I arrived at Lyndon. This group being doubtful of my ability to jitterbug, were slow in coming into the place as the Lyndon group, three charming guests from the J-town Club were to help them. Eventually they began straggling in, doubtful but curious. Soon there were 5 girls and 5 boys, and we began instructions—basic steps, breaks and step breaks were taught. Interest grew with each new phase. I'm certain that those who were not in the group watched, will be in our group next week.

The three visiting personalities made a hit and a success for this group. They are going to make another appearance at these playgrounds next week.

At Middletown and Eastwood they helped in leading games and folk dances.

By 5:30 Barbara, Julia, Doris and myself were tired but happy because we had had a good and an enjoyable day. We piled into the car and wended our merry way back home.

FALLS CITY SWIM MEET AT VALLEY

The Falls City A. A. U. swimming meet, sponsored by the Jefferson County Playgroup and Recreation Board, will be unfolded at Valley Pool on Saturday, July 19th, at 7:30 p.m.

The meet which will bring the best swimmers in the state and nation into Jefferson County, has two outstanding features to highlight the evening's performances. The events are a Kentucky State Championship medley relay for juniors and a United States National Championship breast stroke for juniors.

With a state and a national championship to be decided in the county pool much interest is being manifested which is indicative of a large crowd of supporters following the teams from the Jefferson County Playgroup and Recreation Board, Lakeside, Colonial City of New Albany, Fort Knox, Y. M. C. A., Valley, Glenview, Lexington and Shelbyville. A number of other pools are scheduled to have their entries in before the Friday deadline.

The evening has been dedicated to Sports Folk Fund and a free will contribution will be made to aid in the fight against the "Crippler."

Medora Musings

Medora is the only playground that has a dog that plays ball. Anyone can see him and play with him if you come out to the playground.

The Medora Teen Age Club, will hold their first get together Thursday night 7:30 at the school. A party is being planned by Miss Clayton and Miss Charnoll.

Medora is now sporting a new girls team.

Farm, Business and Labor Leaders Should Be Consulted By Lawmakers

A plan to utilize the knowledge, experience and service of leaders in business, agriculture and labor to aid Congress in writing laws is proposed by Charles E. Wilson, president, General Electric Company, in an analysis of economic control and political freedom prepared for the American Iron and Steel Institute.
"We are more interested," he wrote, "in creating new wealth for all the people than in dividing what there is, a luxury which only a state-managed economy can bestow upon its children."
Blaming "inkering in high places for the present situation, Mr. Wilson told the Iron and Steel Institute, "We have come to a situation in our national life important to management and labor, vendor and vendee, and it is this: As we try to purchase social stability, a more equitable distribution of wealth, and insurance against the hazards of unemployment, sickness and other unhappiness by-products of a non-interference economy by giving up a large chunk of our traditional freedom and independence in favor of a planned and controlled economy?"
Stating that the nation has experienced the preliminary and conditioning doses of planned economy and after a decent interval rejected them at the polls and elsewhere, Mr. Wilson continued:
"We do not want to turn away from the problems of inflation, housing, agriculture, depression and unemployment, the perils of unregulated industrial disorders, the benefits of constructive unionism, the question of universal military service, regulation of atomic energy projects, financial and investment safeguards—from any of the things which will help more Americans live longer, healthier, safer, more comfortable, more efficient, prosperous and useful lives. We want to end our cake-and-have-it attitude. We want to see 'government in the modern economic picture, but government's participation must be by law, not by executive whim.' Government should participate, he said, as an enforcer, not as a petty tyrant.
Stating that we have right to expect only the virtues of common sense, fairness, and respect for law in our national law makers, Mr. Wilson declared that private citizens owe them a duty to supply expert advice and counsel in special fields. It is vital, he said, that some form of continuous conference be set up at which non-governmental leaders in business, agriculture and labor will sit and representatives of the proper committees of House and Senate, and with accurate knowledge of the legislative branch writing the laws. He stressed that such a conference would be "advisory and unofficial, but extremely practical and helpful."

The New Broad Leaf Endive Is a Fine Summer Salad.
Green, leafy vegetables, which supply your family with Vitamin A and calcium, include the leaf crops which are served uncooked in salad. If you like bowl salads, you can serve one at least once a week without complaint.
Many leaves can be used for bowl salad, including all the greens which are also cooked. But our chief reliance is probably on the leaf lettuce and endive, especially the form known as escarole or broad leaved endive.
During hot weather we must depend on escarole, which takes 30 days to mature. By sowing a row at the same time as the first lettuce sowing, we may have it ready in midsummer when trouble with lettuce usually begins. Three sowings of endive, made twenty days apart, will provide you with bowl salad leaves until freezing weather.
The best quality of both broad and curly leaved endive is obtained by giving the plants plenty of room in the row as they mature house heads. The leaves grow crisp and turn cream colored at the base. Newer varieties lack the bitter tang which older forms used to have before frost had sweetened them. It is no longer the practice to bleach the leaves by tying them up, or placing the heads between boards, as this reduces the vitamin content of the leaves.
Endive not only stands hot weather better than lettuce, but it remains in good condition longer in the fall, being improved in quality by frosty weather.

Camp Taylor

By Mrs. Carl T. Miller

Mrs. David B. Berg and little son, Paul Brandt Berg have returned from the Baptist Hospital to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Miller. This is the fourth grandson the Carl Miller family has added to their family since May 1946, when a baby boy, Thomas Clark was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Miller, Jr., at the Baptist Hospital. Then in February, Daniel Tucker Miller arrived at the same place and now makes his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack T. Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Berg's baby was born June 21st. They also have a little girl Linda Lou Berg, 20 months old of Los Angeles, who is with her grandparents, as is her mother.

Mrs. Hugh T. Gratz, who is spent the last month visiting her son, Commander Homer Tucker Gratz and his daughter, Barbara at Pearl Harbor, will return to Louisville this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Lyman P. Halley girl and children, Mary and Billie, have returned from a revival meeting in Georgia where 39 professed faith in Christ. He preached Sunday in East Audubon Baptist Church of which he is the recent pastor.

East Audubon Baptist friends had a picnic supper in Cherokee Park Monday in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Carroll Hubbard and son, Carroll, Jr., and Kyle Trent whose birthdays are both July 7, Carroll being 10 and the younger 6 years old. Rev. Hubbard is now pastor of First Church, Ashland.

Jack Miller, David Hodges, Jimmie Brown and Billie Miller are attending the R. A. Camp at Clear Creek Baptist Assembly at Pineville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lenseberger and daughter, Joyce have gone on a motor trip to Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ditto of Wilmore, Ky., spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Miller. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. David Ditto of Vine Grove.

Residents of Camp Taylor are now having mail delivered at their homes and the new post office is located on Preston Highway, two doors from Ky. Avenue. The address now includes the street number and Louisville 13, Ky.

Tribute to Mrs. Bridwell

In the passing of Mrs. Susan H. Bridwell to her Heavenly home, we feel that not only our school and her church but the whole community of Camp Taylor has lost a loyal citizen and Christian friend. As one who associated with her for several years, as a teacher, WCTU member, and other organizations, I wish to pay tribute to her untiring efforts always to help lift the community to a plane of Christian living.

Her desire as a teacher was to not only educate mentally but to build spiritually. Outside of her teaching period, she spent many hours helping with plays and wholesome entertainments with the P.T.A., 4-H Club, and other school activities. In behalf of her friends and neighbors here and in Jefferson County we extend sympathy to the bereaved family—Mrs. Carl T. Miller.

FEDERAL TAXES ARE PAID ON 719 COIN MACHINES

Government figures in Internal Revenue Department records are reported to show that Federal taxes were paid on 719 coin machines in the City and County during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947.

DRAMA IN THE SUN

HEER's news for teen-agers... a beach costume that features the same bright colored geometric print in two different fabrics. The rayon jersey bathing suit has a young halter neckline and plated skirt. The hooded beach coat in Avisco spun rayon has a wide, casual belt and loose comfortable lines. This rayon beach tent is a good bet because it will withstand strong sunlight and hard wear.

30, 1947. The records listed 485 operators as paying the tax. The 719 figure was said to be 130 machines above the all-time high of 589 taxed during the 1945-1946 fiscal year.

It's been in your Pocket

You've dropped it in the collection plate on Sunday.
You've used it to pay the butcher, the grocer, the tax-collector.

You've used it to swell your savings account, to educate your children, to build your home.

For it's one of the millions of dollars the Southern Railway System spends in the South every year... dollars that find their way to you through your banks, your stores, your business, your job.

Over half of all the dollars we take in begin their journey to you in the pay envelopes of our 50,000 employees. Others go direct to the South's industries and farmers to buy the materials and supplies we use. Some become tax money, helping to foot the bills for schools, highways, airports, fire departments and other governmental services.

In many ways over and above providing an efficient, dependable, economical, privately-owned transportation service, the Southern helps to prime the South's economic pump—and thus puts dollars in your pocket.

Mrs. Basil Sanders entertained quite a few friends with an afternoon party at her home last Friday.

Rudolph Schweckendiek had several nice hogs that are ill. Dr. James McClure is treating them and we certainly hope these fine porkers can be cured.

Mrs. May Harris of Louisville spent last week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Little Harris and other relatives.

Mrs. Elmo Carey is with her aunt, Mrs. Paul Owen, helping care for the young lady of that home, little Miss Glacy Elaine.

Mrs. Smith Terry of Sontenville Road was a luncheon guest Thursday of Mrs. Albert Fisher. They called in several homes on old friends. In the afternoon Mrs. Terry, Miss Julia Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Terry of Fairdale came from a fishing jaunt and took Mrs. Terry home.

Mrs. Henry Schneider has returned from a visit with friends in Detroit, Mich., and Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bleemel spent Saturday in Louisville. Mrs. Bleemel is having dental work done.

Mrs. DeWan and daughter from St. Louis, Mo., were recent guests to Louisville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Armstrong entertained a number of guests Sunday.

WALLACE VOICES ANOTHER IDEA . . . Henry A. Wallace, shown here with Sen. Claude Pepper (Dem., Fla.), waves to crowds at Washington Wednesday where he spoke on international relations. Recently returned from a two-month cross-country speaking tour, Wallace told his Washington, D. C., listeners that President Truman should invite Soviet Premier Josef Stalin to "peace meeting" in Berlin to settle differences.

Two weeks' visit here Friday. Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Jones and Mrs. Shively went to the train to see her off. Mr. Price met her at Atlanta and accompanied her home. Mr. Dallas Hart is very poorly. Had Dr. Bates last week and he relieved him.

Mrs. J. E. Stanford entertained at dinner on Monday for Mrs. Price, Mrs. L. C. Jones and Mrs. C. R. Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Lilly were absent Sunday and there are few that we miss as much as Mr. and Mrs. Lilly. They spread sunshine and cheer when they come. They have traits of character that are very admirable.
